

Eight: Journal of the Royal Institute of British Architects, October, London. Kings College Chapel, Cambridge, included in a review of an architectural photography show.

Right: Journal of the Royal Institute of British Architects, July, London. House by de Campos helped elicit editorial recognition of the "wealth of original thought in Brazil."

A sampling of magazines

Above: Architectural Design, August, London. Flats by Powell & Moya in Pimlico, London, completed this year, are thoroughly reviewed in 18 pages. Shopping street shown here.

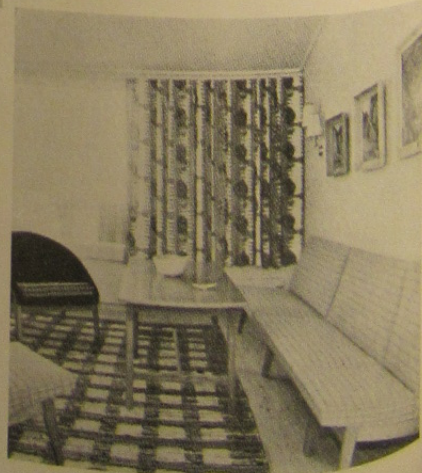

Above: Werk, July, Zurich. Ceramics by Marc Chagall and paintings by Ferdinand Hodler follow a well-photographed collection of schools in Yugoslavia, Italy, and Germany.

Below: Arquitectura Mexico, June, Mexico City. Lavish, eclectic house in Cuernavaca by Arturo Pani entices the sunny climate into the living room, open against a pool for coolness.

Above: Dansk Kunsthåndværk, Copenhagen. Beautifully shaped and glazed ceramics by Lisbeth Munch Petersen are contrasts in mood to industrial design section.

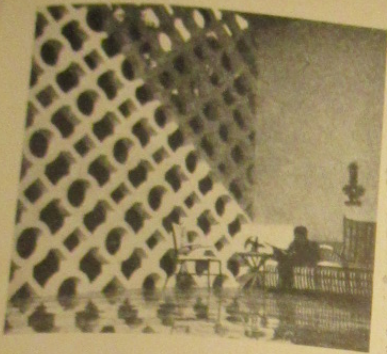

Below: Bonytt, June, Oslo. Four Norwegian interior designing teams planned sitting rooms, identical in size and shape, in four different ways. Bergen Association's shown.

Above: Werk, June to amphitheater in nology in Zurich buildings predomi

Institute of Brit-
on. House by de rial recognition of
thought in Brazil."
nes

Right: Kenchiku Bunka, September, Tokyo.
Room in a house by Takeshi Nishikawa that,
in intention and effect, combines Japanese modernism and simplicity of children's art.

f r o m a b r o a d

Above: The Ambassador, September, London.
The editors take a 26-page trip to the Mediterranean, show the mask of a Triton in Cosmedin among many exciting photographs.

Below: Architektur und Wohnform, June, Stuttgart. Showroom for Gral-glass in Hannover dramatizes the luster of glass in brilliantly lit niches in black-painted walls.

Above: Edilizia Moderna, June, Milan. Apartment by Augusto Magnaghi and Mario Terzaghi, pictured from the balcony. Also in the issue: the new Olympic Stadium in Rome.

Above: Werk, June, Zurich. Several stairways to amphitheater in Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich facilitate traffic. Industrial buildings predominate in this issue.

